

Arts About Auckland

A joint initiative between Arts Advocates Auckland and Jasons Travel Media

Welcome to Arts About Auckland – the market leading Brochure Display service for the arts community.

Presenting your product or service in a professional manner to Auckland residents, International and Domestic visitors in the right place and time is a real challenge.

Our service, marketed under the name Arts About Auckland, provides the solution. Brochure displays comprise high visibility, visitor frequented locations throughout the Auckland region providing you with the opportunity to present your product or service to arts friendly customers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Arts About Auckland provides key advantages

- Auckland wide distribution
- Excellent Profile, presence and presentation of your product or service
- Very cost effective and unparalleled exposure across a variety of outlets and customer categories
- Full merchandising service of your displays – we do the work for you
- One point of contact to manage the service
- Cross marketing opportunities with Jasons and Arts Advocates Auckland website and other distribution products.

The Arts About Auckland network provides a key channel to reach your market with the confidence your product or service is “on display”.

Research shows brochure displays are one of the key sources for people seeking information on arts activities or events available across the region.

For further information call us to discuss how we can promote your business.
